Every department is literally filled with SPECIAL REDUCED PRICES—all ready for

The Most Important Clearing Sale
Day of the Season

Inventory, just concluded, shows the imperativeness of the immediate CLEARING OUT OF THOUSANDS OF DOLLARS' WORTH OF THIS WINTER'S GOODS; its process brought us face to face with many lots that are either too big, too small, or not "just right" in style or kind, or other reasons that render the goods unfit for a place in our regular stocks.

To-day's sale will consist of

Big Bargains in

Tailored Suits and Dresses,
Women's and Children's Coats,
Warm Undergarments,
Millinery, Hosiery and Gloves,
Silks and Dress Goods,
Wash Goods, White Goods, Linens,
House and Home Furnishings,

Also, there are hundreds of reduced prices in small articles and fancy goods throughout the house that will be interesting.

Many of the Bargains are wonderful—SOME ARE SENSATIONAL—but space forbids a detailed account of them here. So lay aside this paper—right now—and get your wrap and hat. Catch the first car for the store—THIS STORE—and visit the counters where the various Bargains are on sale.

CHARTER CHANGES GO BACK TO BOARD

Common Council Fails to Concur in Amendments Adopted by Aldermen.

TWO BRANCHES DEADLOCKED

Cannot Agree as to Control of Fire, Police and Health Departments.

Falling to concur in the amendments as adopted by the Board of Aldermen, the Common Council last night adopted the original report of the Committee on Charter Changes in its entirety, with the exception of a slight change in the wording of one of the resolutions, and sent the paper back to the Board of Aldermen for concurrence. As adopted by the Council last night and as adopted by that body before, the resolutions of the committee would empower the City Council to place the Police, Fire and Health Departments under the Administrative Board at any time in the future, that such action might be deemed necessary, and it would give the Administrative Board authority to expend appropriations made in a lump sum in any manner and for whatever purpose it might see fit. On these two sections of the committee's report, the two branches of the City Council are diametrically opposed. The Board of Aldermen refused by a large vote to accept the Council's action with the authority to change the control of the Police, Fire and Health Departments, and it left the section in the city charter dictating how appropriations shall be made as it is, the original section leaving this to the discretion of the Finance Committee.

The Common Council also refused to concur in the amendment prohibiting any member of the Administrative Board from being a candidate for, or accepting any municipal remunerative office while a member of the board or within one year after the expiration of his term.

Goes Back to Board.
The report of the Committee on Charter Changes came up as amended on resolution from the Board of Aldermen. It goes back for concurrence or rejection, as it was in its original form, when returned by the committee to both branches of the City Council. The Board of Aldermen may concur with the Council in its action last night, or reject the amendments and ask for a committee on conference. If it rejects the resolutions and fails to ask for a committee on conference the whole subject of charter changes becomes a dead issue so far as it may come up before the present Legislature.

It was stated last night that the friends of the measure which would give the City Council authority to change the control of the Police, Fire and Health Departments, any line that it may see fit to have enough votes in the Board of Aldermen to have it concurred in.

The report of the committee, as amended by the Board of Aldermen, was voted on by the Council. Every action was concurred in until the clerk reached the clause which would prohibit any member of the Administrative Board from accepting any municipal remunerative office while a member of the board, or within a year after the expiration of his term. Mr. Mills moved that the whole section be stricken out, and his motion was adopted.

On the amendment to the original report which would leave the Fire, Police and Health Departments under their present control, Mr. Haddon moved that the section be stricken out, and his motion was adopted.

Comes Up as New Matter.
After the report as amended by the Council was adopted as a whole, Mr. Mills moved that the chair ask for a committee on conference, but the subject was now a new matter, and would have to be sent to the Board of Aldermen for concurrence or rejection.

Under a suspension of rules, the Council took up from the table a resolution offered by Mr. Fuller, to authorize the Finance Committee to employ Edward J. Warren as assistant auditor for twelve months, beginning January 1, 1914, at a salary of $1,000 a year. It was adopted unanimously.

An ordinance to authorize the Council to elect an auditor to hold office from January 1 to July 1, 1914, after which the position will be filled by popular election, was concurred in.

A resolution offered by Mr. Umlauf to permit the convention of the National Association of Superintendents of Education to have the free use of the City Auditorium February 22-23 was passed. The Council also adopted a resolution to appropriate $500 for the Advertising Committee's fund to help defray the expenses of the campaign to have one of the Federal regional reserve banks established in Richmond.

An amendment to the ordinance requiring street cleaning, which requires the Street Cleaning Department to collect and remove garbage from apartment houses, theatres, hospitals, churches, hotels, schools and charitable institutions was adopted. The amendment was reported by the Ordinance Committee, which met just before the Council convened.

LOCAL TALENT HAS CHANCE TO SHINE

Chorus Needed for Musical Comedy to Be Given in "Spring Trade Week."

PROGRAM TAKING SHAPE

Trade Extension Bureau Increasing Membership in Whirlwind Campaign.

There will be a fine opportunity for local talent to display its nimble feet and vocal prowess in the special performance of the musical play, "Forty-five Minutes From Broadway," which will be given by the company now playing at the Grayce Scott Bijou Theatre as an entertainment feature for the visitors during "Spring Trade Week," March 3-6. The singing roles of the comedy will be played by the members of Miss Scott's company, and the demand for local talent applies solely to the chorus. Applicants should apply to DeWitt Newling, manager of the company, or to Alvin M. Smith, chairman of the entertainment committee of the Trade Extension Bureau of the Chamber of Commerce.

The special performance of the musical comedy will be given on Thursday night, March 5, and is expected to prove the feature of the program of the trade week. On Tuesday night the visiting retail merchants will sit down at a dinner in the Business Men's Club. On Wednesday night they will be in the cafe of Miller & Rhoads's department store, and on Friday night they will be treated to an assortment of entertainments.

Bureau Membership Doubled.
The 100,000 invitations to attend the "Spring Trade Week" will be sent to the printer to-morrow. The names of the members of the Trade Extension Bureau will be signed to the invitations, and a whirlwind campaign for membership is now being conducted. Since the "Better Acquaintance Week" of last August, the membership of the bureau has been more than doubled. The firms now represented are as follows:

Hoenigler-Sizemore Company, Incorporated, Standard Paper Manufacturing Company, Richmond Buggy Manufacturing Company, J. E. ## GUNSHOT WOUND CAUSE OF DEATH

Coroner's Jury Returns Open Verdict in Case of Negro Killed by Officer.

A coroner's jury which yesterday morning inquired into the death of John Love colored, forty-seven years old, who was fatally shot in a hand-to-hand encounter with J. E. Mallory, special agent of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway and special policeman of the Henrico County, on Wednesday, returned a verdict that he came to his death by a pistol shot wound.

Mallory, who is under $1,500 bail for appearance before Magistrate H. S. Sunday for a hearing on the formal charge of murder, and Dr. J. M. Cofer, City Hospital ambulance surgeon, were the only witnesses. The officer told of meeting Love in the freight yards just beyond Fulton, the shooting took place in the county. Dr. Cofer merely described the wounds. Not until yesterday was Love's identity disclosed. His wife viewed the body at a local undertaking establishment and said that it was that of her husband. She said she had never known him to be connected with any crime.

WILL ASK BOARD TO STUDY PAVING

West End Citizens' Association Wants Ginter Park Type on Meadow Street.

The West End Citizens' Association, at its regular meeting last night in the old ratskeller building at Idlewood Park, decided to send a committee before the Administrative Board in the interest of street improvement in the western portion of the city. The report of the committee was made by the chairman, Allen J. Saville. It recommended that the Administrative Board be asked to continue on Meadow Street the type of paving now being laid on that street in Ginter Park.

Meadow Street, says the report, is the longest street in the city, running from the river on the south to Ginter Park on the north. It is advisable that one type of paving should be laid throughout its length, the committee argues. The recommendation is made that the board investigate the paving method now employed in Ginter Park, with the view to duplicating it on that portion of Meadow Street which lies within the city limits.

The committee also suggests that the board study the Ginter Park system of curbing and guttering. The Ginter Park method, it is claimed, is less expensive than the plan in vogue in Richmond.

At the next meeting of the association, to be held in the ratskeller building on February 5, City Attorney Pollard and the attorney for the Southern Gas and Electric Company will be present on the subject: "Shall the City Lease the Gas Works?"

CHARTERS GRANTED

The following charters were granted yesterday by the State Corporation Commission:

W. H. Morris Grocery Company, Inc., Richmond. Capital: $5,000 to $10,000. W. H. Morris, president; O. F. Yates, secretary, both of Richmond.

Virginia Patents Corporation, Richmond. Capital: $15,000 to $25,000. H. S. Hedges, president; E. O. Dirlwiler, secretary, both of Charlottesville.

Virginia Paper Company, Inc., Richmond. Capital: $10,000 to $50,000. C. F. Widener, president; W. J. Tucker, secretary, both of Richmond.

Amendment to charter: Atlantic Permanent Building and Loan Association, Inc., Norfolk. Capital: $25,000 to $50,000.

Amendment to charter of Bank of Halifax, at Houston, enlarging its powers.

To Open New Substation.
Two substations will be established February 16 in connection with the Richmond post-office, according to instructions received here yesterday. One will be at the store of Charles S. Turner, druggist, Third and Main Streets, and will be known officially as No. 24. No. 25 will be opened at the confectionery store of Miss Mattie E. Wood, Seventh and Perry Streets, South Richmond.

Rhea Qualifies.
Judge William P. Rhea, recently appointed by Governor Mann for six years term on the State Corporation Commission, appeared before Judge D. C. Richardson yesterday in the Circuit Court of Richmond and qualified for office.

DETERMINED TO MAKE IT IMPOSING AFFAIR

Committee Plans Inauguration Commensurate With Virginia's Dignity and Resources.

CORPS OF CADETS MAY COME

Only Obstacle Is Expense, and Way May Be Found to Raise Funds.

Plans for the inauguration of Governor-elect Stuart, including arrangements for the administering of the oath, the reading of the inaugural address on the portico of the Capitol, and the military parade of honor, are being developed rapidly by the inaugural committee, the members of which are: Alumnus of the Virginia Military Institute and the Virginia Polytechnic Institute hope to bring the cadet corps of both of these schools to Richmond to participate in the inaugural parade. It is believed that this may be accomplished.

At noon on Monday, February 2, Governor-elect Stuart will take the oath of office, administered by Judge James Keith, president of the Supreme Court, on the south portico of the Capitol in the presence of 500 State dignitaries and guests seated around him, and hundreds of uniformed militiamen and plain citizens banked on the walks and terrace below. On the platform with the Governor will be Governor Mann, the members of the Supreme Court, and the other State officers who are to take the oath of office on the same occasion.

Inauguration to Be Impressive.
Somewhat against the modest desires of Mr. Stuart, the inaugural committee has determined to make the inaugural parade the most impressive in the recent history of Virginia. That the exercises of induction of the new administration into office should be in keeping with the dignity, the prosperity and the resources of the State at this time, is the settled purpose of the committee.

There will be no attempt to contravert the "Democratic simplicity" so long the rule in the State government, but the simplicity will be accompanied by solemn ceremonial in keeping with the importance of the event. For the first time since the inauguration of Governor O'Ferrall, the people of the State will be permitted to witness the ceremony of the State being forced to secure tickets of admission. The committee has let down the bars, and the induction of Mr. Stuart into office will be a public affair in the fullest sense of the word. The inaugural parade will be a literal construction of the Constitution. Mr. Stuart will first privately take the oath of office on Saturday, January 21. He is required by law to qualify on February 1, but this date falling on Sunday, the inauguration will be held with an unusual situation. To obviate any technical error, Mr. Stuart will appear in the courtroom of the State Supreme Court on Saturday morning and take the oath from Judge Keith, and his public inauguration will take place on Monday.

Great Military Parade.
If the efforts to bring the cadets of the two State military schools to Richmond succeed, the inaugural parade will be the largest military spectacle seen here in ten years. The Virginia Military Institute corps numbers about 250 men, while the corps of the Virginia Polytechnic Institute contains more than twice that number. Due to the fact that Mr. Stuart is unwilling for the State to expend money for his inaugural ceremonies, some difficulty will be experienced in obtaining the trip of the two corps to Richmond.

The military subcommittee, composed of Delegates Myers and Lincoln and Senator Buchanan, is working with the board of military affairs to make arrangements to raise a fund sufficient to cover the traveling expenses. The railroads have offered reduced transportation, and while here the corps would be quartered in the armories of the Blue and Buff regiments as the guests of those commands.

The presence of the cadets would add such interest to the parade that a vigorous effort will be made to finance their trip. An attempt will be made, it is understood, to have the alumni of the two schools contribute to the expense fund.

March Down Franklin Street.
The military parade will form in the street around the Capitol Square shortly before 11 o'clock on Monday morning. The First Virginia Regiment, the Richmond Light Infantry Blues, the Richmond Howitzers, the two cadet corps, such other militia commands in the State as agree to finance their own trips, and several bands will be in line. A cordial invitation to participants in the parade has been sent by the subcommittee to every military organization in Virginia. Many are expected to avail themselves of the opportunity.

About 7 o'clock, the parade will form in parallel lines along the driveway from the Executive Mansion. Governor Mann, riding alone in a carriage, will then drive out of the mansion grounds, where the Governor-elect will await him. Mr. Stuart will take his seat in the carriage with Governor Mann, other prominent State officers will occupy other carriages, and the cortege will start down Franklin Street for the Capitol Square.

It is expected that the carriage, containing the retiring Governor and the incoming Governor will draw up to the south portico of the Capitol in advance of the general body of the parade, and the two leading figures of the day will stand and watch the military commands pass in review.

Seats for 500 Spectators.
It is estimated by the inaugural committee that there will be room for 500 chairs on the big south portico. Seated there will be Senator Echols, chairman of the committee and presiding officer at the exercises; Governor Mann, Governor-elect Stuart, Lieutenant-Governor Elyson, Attorney-General Williams, Attorney-General-elect Pollard, Secretary of the Commonwealth B. O. James, State Treasurer Harman, the members of the Supreme Court, the members of the Senate and the House of Delegates and other prominent State officials. The subcommittee in charge of the portico arrangements, consisting of Chairman Echols, Senator Harman and Clerk Williams, believes there will be room to seat several hundred unofficial spectators on the portico after allotting seats to the officials enumerated above. Some scheme for the distribution of seat tickets will be devised by the committee.

According to the plans mapped out, the exercises will begin at noon with the administering of the oath of office to Governor-elect Stuart. Each of the five members of the Supreme Court will administer the oath to one of the five newly-elected State officers, the president of the court officiating in the case of the Governor. The committee has not yet arranged who will administer the oath to the Secretary of the Commonwealth, the Attorney-General and the Lieutenant-Governor, who will be sworn in the order named. The induction into office of the Governor will come as the climax.

Following the ceremony of taking the oath, Mr. Stuart will be introduced by Governor Mann and will then deliver his inaugural address.

PRESIDENT IS INVITED

Montague Asks Him to Visit Richmond While Educators Are Here.

Congressman A. J. Montague called at the White House yesterday and invited President Wilson to visit Richmond during the latter part of February, when the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People is in session here. No definite promise was given. Mr. Montague said after leaving the White House that it is probable that a decision will be rendered in three days.

President Wilson told Mr. Montague that he was sorry he had been unable to accept none of the previous invitations to visit Richmond, and said that he would give the present one serious consideration.

THORNTON IN FULL CHARGE OF OFFICE

New Postmaster Presents Predecessor With Handsome Gift on Behalf of Postal Employees.

Hay T. Thornton, recently appointed postmaster at Richmond, assumed charge of the office yesterday morning, but was unable to transact much business owing to the frequent interruption from curious who called to congratulate him on his promotion. Edgar Allan, Jr., his predecessor, was at the office all day straightening up his affairs and making Mr. Thornton into the routine of the position.

On behalf of the employees of the postal service, Mr. Thornton, in a graceful speech, presented Mr. Allan with a handsome watch, chain and fob as a testimonial of their regard. The gift was received by Mr. Allan, who thanked the donors and stated that he deeply appreciated their regard and always would cherish their present as a pleasant memory of his official connection with them.

Mr. Thornton succeeded Mr. Allan at midnight Wednesday, signing a receipt for all government property on hand. The inventory was taken by Hal B. Mosby, government inspector, who found that the accounts tallied to a cent. The stock amounts to more than a quarter of a million dollars.

At Station A, W. S. Doughty succeeded Mr. Thornton as superintendent yesterday morning. E. H. Ragland was promoted to assistant superintendent, and J. W. A. Ross succeeds him as foreman of the station.

No changes, Mr. Thornton announced, will be made in any of the department heads, either at the main office or at the substations. Mr. Ross, Southward, who has been assistant postmaster for several years, will continue in that position.

BOARD HEARS COMPLAINT

Property Owners Do Not Want to Pay Bills for Tenants.

The Administrative Board yesterday heard real estate agents and property owners on their petition that an ordinance be passed providing that owners of property shall be relieved from payment of delinquent gas and water bills of their tenants, and that the tenants shall be held responsible for their delinquencies.

The matter came up before the City Council on November 2, 1912, and was referred by that body to the board. The board will hear the heads of the two city departments concerned, and will then take the question under consideration.

Marriage License.

HARDING IS HELD FOR GRAND JURY

He Waives Preliminary Hearing Before Justice Crutchfield on Charge of Embezzlement.

John H. Harding, the youthful bookkeeper of the defunct Commonwealth Bank, arrested in connection with a shortage of about $13,000 and specifically charged with the theft of $2,160, was arraigned in Police Court yesterday morning and waived a preliminary examination. Without hearing any testimony, Justice Crutchfield sent the case on to the grand jury in the Hastings Court.

Accompanied by his counsel, John A. Lamb, Harding appeared in court neatly and modestly dressed. He paid little attention to the many curious persons who found him an object of much interest. After Mr. Lamb had informed the court that his client would waive a preliminary examination, his bond of $5,000 was renewed, security being furnished by his parents, J. E. Harding and Mrs. Sarah V. Harding, of Barton Heights.

Laura Holloway, colored, was sent to the grand jury by Justice Crutchfield on the charge of stealing a diamond ring, valued at $250 from S. Francione.

E. R. Carter was fined $25 and costs for being drunk, disorderly and cursing Detective-Sergeant Bailey in the discharge of his duty.

NEGRO WEEPS AND SMILES

Runs Gamut of Emotions When Acquitted in Hastings Court.

When the jury brought a verdict acquitting him of assaulting his mother-in-law, Dollie White, Thomas Smith, colored, broke into hysterical weeping in the Hastings Court yesterday afternoon, and a negro in the back of the courtroom shouted "Thank God, the court now is in an uproar for a few moments, and the negro spectator who had given vent to his feelings slunk out when Judge Richardson threatened to fine any one who created further disturbance.

Smith continued crying for a few minutes, and violently shook the hand of the jurymen nearest to him until he regained his self-control. Then, as suddenly, he broke into smiles and thanked all the jury for freeing him.

Smith was charged with assaulting his mother-in-law when he went to her home to recover his child, who had been taken from her by her mother. The jury believed his version of the story, which was that the woman attacked him, and that she fell down the stairs while he was struggling to take a broomstick from her. He was defended by Attorneys Alfred Kirsh and Frank G. Louthan, appeared by the court.

Bruce Monroe, colored, charged with holding up and robbing John Johnson, of $4.00 on the night of December 23, was convicted, the jury fixing his punishment at two years in the penitentiary.

Many others were charged with setting fire to the home of Henry Williams on the night of December 23, was convicted, the jury fixing his punishment at two years in the penitentiary.

TO PROTECT CITY STREETS

They Must Not Be dug Up Without Permit From City Engineer.

On the complaint of the City Engineer that some of the other departments occasionally dig up the streets and do not properly replace them afterwards, the Administrative Board yesterday issued instructions to all departments that they must not dig up the streets without first having obtained permit for so doing from the City Engineer's office. In case of extreme emergency, however, they may dig up the streets, but after such emergency work they must immediately notify the City Engineer.
